Jonkheer (title of Dutch nobility) G.H.Th. Beelaerts van Blokland was a Netherlander and diplomat representing the Zuid Afrikaansche Republiek in Europe. He was first appointed by President Paul Kruger as an adviser during the 1883 treaty negotiations with Great Britain over the sovereignty of the ZAR. On the conclusion of the treaty he then became Kruger's representative for the ZAR in Europe. He was instrumental in the foundation of the Nederlandsche-Zuid-Afrikaansche Spoorwegmaatschappij in 1884 which led to the building of the railway line between Pretoria and the Delagoa Bay in Mozambique which was completed 1895. In 1894 the position of Minister Plenipotentiary at The Hague was created to van Blokland was appointed. In this capacity he was presented with the medal here at the 1894 Antwerp International Exhibition where the ZAR had exhibits. Van Blokland died in 1897 before the outbreak of the Boer War.
