Notes: The motto: "????? ?????" (Tikvat Yisrael) meaning: "Hope of Israel" has been used by the Cape Town Hebrew Congressince its inception in 1841. It is probable that the abbreviation: "?"?" could be interpreted and translated to mean: "Estal the name of G-d, Hallelujah."

The Great Synagogue (Gardens Schul) is located at 88 Hatfield Street, Cape Town. The congregation is the oldest Jew congregation in South Africa.

The building replaced the St John's Street Synagogue when that became too small. It was designed by the Architects J Parker and Forsyth in the European Baroque style and built at a cost of £26 000. It has a capacity for 1,500 worshipers foundation stone was laid by the Governor of the Cape, Sir Walter Hely-Hutchinso, on 2 June 1904. The synagogue was consecrated on 13 September 1905 by Rev A P Bender and opened by the congregation president, Hyman Liberman, 1 Mayor of Cape Town.
